

The experimental results show that mercury forms a complex in a 1:1 ratio. It appears that the mercury atom is linked between the carboxyl and the α -hydroxyl groups.